ANTI-RAGGING CELL ANNUAL REPORT 2018-2019

The Anti-Ragging Cell at KuriakoseGregorios College continued its dedicated efforts to create a safe and welcoming environment for students during the academic year 2018-2019. UGC Regulations on Curbing the Menace of Ragging in Higher Educational Institutions, 2009 and The Kerala Prohibition of Ragging Act, 1996 served as foundation documents for the functioning of the cell. With a commitment to fostering a culture of respect and discouraging any form of ragging on campus, the Anti-Ragging Cell implemented various initiatives and programs.

As the academic year marked the initiation of first-year classes, Class teachers briefed senior classes about the zero-tolerance policy towards ragging, emphasizing the importance of maintaining a friendly and supportive atmosphere for all.

Awareness programs, Poster Making Competition, Quiz Competition were conducted throughout the academic year to educate students about the detrimental effects of ragging and the legal consequences associated with such activities.

Recognizing the importance of collaboration, the Anti-Ragging Cell actively worked in tandem with the Students' Grievance Redressal Cell. Joint efforts were undertaken to address any concerns or complaints related to ragging promptly. This collaboration enhanced the overall effectiveness of grievance resolution mechanisms and promoted a sense of trust among the student body.

No complaint was received this year.

The Anti-Ragging Cell at KuriakoseGregorios College remains committed to maintaining a campus free from ragging and fostering a culture of respect, tolerance, and inclusivity. The initiatives undertaken during the academic year 2018-2019 reflect our ongoing dedication to ensuring the well-being of every member of our college community.

ANTI-RAGGING CELL ANNUAL REPORT 2019-2020

The Anti-Ragging Cell of Kuriakose Gregorios College continued its unwavering commitment to promoting a campus culture that rejects any form of ragging during the academic year 2019-2020. UGC Regulations on Curbing the Menace of Ragging in Higher Educational Institutions, 2009 and The Kerala Prohibition of Ragging Act, 1996 served as foundation documents for the functioning of the cell. The year saw the implementation of innovative initiatives to create awareness, discourage ragging, and foster a safe and inclusive environment for all students.

WhatsApp Group for Information Dissemination: Recognizing the importance of timely communication, the Anti-Ragging Cell established a dedicated WhatsApp group to disseminate information related to anti-ragging measures, awareness campaigns, and any updates pertinent to maintaining a ragging-free campus. This platform proved to be an effective means of reaching a wider audience and facilitating quick responses to concerns.

Essay Competition: Under the dynamic leadership of Dr. Priya A., the Anti-Ragging Cell organized an Essay Competition centered on the theme of "Fostering a Culture of Respect and Inclusivity." This initiative aimed to encourage students to reflect on the impact of ragging on individuals and the community. Dr. Priya A., with her expertise, played a pivotal role in guiding and inspiring participants to articulate their thoughts effectively.

Collaboration with College NSS and NCC: In a collaborative effort to strengthen anti-ragging initiatives, the Anti-Ragging Cell sought support from the College National Service Scheme (NSS) and National Cadet Corps (NCC). This partnership aimed to leverage the organizational skills and community-oriented mindset of NSS and NCC members to enhance the reach and effectiveness of anti-ragging awareness programs.

No complaints were received during the year.

The Anti-Ragging Cell at Kuriakose Gregorios College remains steadfast in its commitment to creating a secure and supportive environment for all students. The initiatives undertaken during the academic year 2019-2020, including the establishment of a WhatsApp group, the Essay Competition led by Dr. Priya A., and collaboration with NSS and NCC, reflect our continuous efforts to eradicate ragging and nurture a campus culture based on mutual respect and understanding.

ANTI-RAGGING CELL ANNUAL REPORT 2020-2021

The Anti-Ragging Cell of Kuriakose Gregorios College continued its vigilant efforts to maintain a ragging-free environment during the challenging academic year 2020-2021. UGC Regulations on Curbing the Menace of Ragging in Higher Educational Institutions, 2009 and The Kerala Prohibition of Ragging Act, 1996 served as foundation documents for the functioning of the cell. Despite the unprecedented circumstances, the Anti-Ragging Cell adapted its strategies to address the unique needs of students, ensuring their safety and well-being.

Flashmob Conducted: In an innovative approach to raising awareness against ragging, the Anti-Ragging Cell organized a Flashmob event under the guidance of Ms. Suma P Annie Mathew. The energetic and dynamic performance captivated the attention of students and faculty alike, effectively conveying the message of unity against ragging. Ms. Suma P Annie Mathew's leadership played a crucial role in orchestrating this memorable and impactful event.

Complaints: We are pleased to report that during the academic year 2020-2021, the Anti-Ragging Cell received no complaints related to ragging incidents on the college campus. This positive outcome reflects the effectiveness of our preventive measures, awareness programs, and the collaborative efforts of the college community in fostering a respectful and inclusive atmosphere.

Online Awareness Campaigns: Recognizing the shift to online learning and communication, the Anti-Ragging Cell conducted targeted awareness campaigns through virtual platforms.

The Anti-Ragging Cell at Kuriakose Gregorios College remains dedicated to fostering a campus environment that prioritizes the safety and well-being of every student. The Flashmob event organized under the guidance of Ms. Suma P Annie Mathew, the absence of complaints during the year, and the successful transition to online awareness campaigns highlight our adaptability and commitment to eradicating ragging. As we move forward, the Anti-Ragging Cell will continue its proactive stance to maintain a campus free from the menace of ragging.
