SC/ST MONITORING CELL ANNUAL REPORT ACADEMIC YEAR 2018-2019

The SC/ST Monitoring Cell at KuriakoseGregorios College has been steadfast in its commitment to ensuring the well-being and academic success of students from Scheduled Castes (SC) and Scheduled Tribes (ST). During the academic year 2018-2019, the cell continued its mission to create an inclusive and supportive environment for SC/ST students.

SC/ST Students' List Collection: At the outset of the academic year, the SC/ST Monitoring Cell successfully collected and updated the list of SC/ST students enrolled in KuriakoseGregorios College. This comprehensive list served as the basis for targeted support and assistance, enabling the cell to address the specific needs and concerns of SC/ST students effectively.

Display of Available Scholarships: In an effort to empower SC/ST students with information about available financial assistance, the SC/ST Monitoring Cell displayed details of scholarships on the college notice board. This transparent approach aimed to provide students with easy access to information, encouraging them to explore opportunities that could alleviate financial burdens and support their academic aspirations.

Complaints: We are pleased to report that throughout the academic year 2018-2019, the SC/ST Monitoring Cell received no complaints related to discrimination or bias against SC/ST students. This lack of complaints is indicative of the success of our collective efforts in fostering an inclusive environment where every student feels respected and supported.

Regular Support and Guidance: The SC/ST Monitoring Cell remained dedicated to providing regular support and guidance to SC/ST students. This included mentorship programs, academic counseling, and proactive measures to address any specific concerns or challenges faced by individual students. The cell focused on creating an atmosphere where SC/ST students could thrive both academically and personally.

The SC/ST Monitoring Cell at KuriakoseGregorios College is proud to have contributed to an inclusive and supportive academic environment during the academic year 2018-2019. The meticulous collection of SC/ST students' lists, the transparent display of available scholarships, and the absence of complaints highlight the effectiveness of our efforts. As we move forward, the SC/ST Monitoring Cell will continue to evolve its strategies to further enhance the support and inclusivity for SC/ST students within the college community.

SC/ST MONITORING CELL ANNUAL REPORT ACADEMIC YEAR 2020-2021

The SC/ST Monitoring Cell at Kuriakose Gregorios College has been resolute in its commitment to ensuring the welfare and academic success of students from Scheduled Castes (SC) and Scheduled Tribes (ST). The academic year 2020-2021 presented unique challenges, and the SC/ST Monitoring Cell adapted its strategies to address the evolving needs of SC/ST students.

SC/ST Students' List Collection: At the outset of the academic year, the SC/ST Monitoring Cell meticulously collected and updated the list of SC/ST students enrolled in Kuriakose Gregorios College. This initiative served as the foundation for targeted support and assistance, ensuring that the unique needs of SC/ST students were identified and addressed promptly.

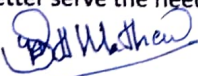

Scholarship Information Circulated via WhatsApp: Recognizing the importance of accessible information dissemination, the SC/ST Monitoring Cell took advantage of digital platforms and circulated information about available scholarships for SC/ST students via class groups on WhatsApp. This approach aimed to reach students directly, providing them with details about financial assistance opportunities that could aid their academic pursuits.

Internet Facilities for Online Classes: In response to the shift to online classes, the SC/ST Monitoring Cell worked diligently to ensure that SC/ST students had proper internet facilities to attend online classes. Collaborative efforts were made to identify and address any challenges faced by students in accessing online resources, thus promoting inclusivity in the virtual learning environment.

Complaints: Due to the transition to online classes, there were no complaints received during the academic year related to discrimination or bias against SC/ST students. The virtual learning environment was carefully monitored to ensure that students, irrespective of their backgrounds, could participate in classes without hindrance.

Regular Support and Guidance: Despite the challenges posed by the online learning environment, the SC/ST Monitoring Cell continued to provide regular support and guidance to SC/ST students. This included online counselling sessions, mentorship programs, and proactive measures to address any specific concerns or challenges faced by individual students.

The SC/ST Monitoring Cell at Kuriakose Gregorios College is proud of the adaptability and success achieved during the challenging academic year 2020-2021. The meticulous collection of SC/ST students' lists, the use of digital platforms for scholarship information, and the proactive measures to ensure internet access for online classes highlight the commitment to inclusivity. As we move forward, the SC/ST Monitoring Cell will continue to evolve its strategies to better serve the needs of SC/ST students and promote equity and diversity within the college community.
